

WILLS

Process for a will:

Meet with Client and get information

Full name:

Address:

Phone #:

Do you want buried or cremated?

Who do you want to give your house/land to?

If that person is not alive, then who do you want it to go to?

Who do you want to give your personal property to?

Any specific pieces of property you want to give to a specific person?

If so, what property given to who?

If any of these people are not alive, who do you want the property to go to?

Who do you want to be your executor (the person who carries out the will)?

If they are not alive or are unable to serve, who do you want as executor?

After I get the information, I will draft the wills and set a time to sign the will in front of two witnesses and a notary.

I will give you the original and a copy of the will, and I keep a copy in my office, just in case.

The will DOES NOT get filed until after the persons death.

Spouses can no longer make a joint will.

Fees: $150.00 for a will

If both spouses come for a will together I will do both for $250.00
